♦ PROJECT ♦

FoodSaver - Smart Surplus Food Redistribution System

- Developed a full-stack web application that connects surplus food donors with people in need, aimed at reducing food waste through efficient, technology-driven redistribution.
- Built end-to-end using Flask, Python, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and SQLite for a lightweight and responsive experience.
- Implemented core modules including secure user registration, login authentication, food donation listing, and real-time donation tracking.
- Designed and developed an admin dashboard to manage, verify, and track donation requests efficiently.
- Deployed the live application on Render and maintained version-controlled source code on GitHub.

- Gained practical, end-to-end exposure to the full web application lifecycle — from design and development to deployment.

◆ INDUSTRIAL INTERNSHIP ◆

Tamil Nadu Newsprint and Papers Limited (TNPL), Karur

- Observed enterprise-level IT infrastructure, networking operations, and system administration practices.
- Learned the fundamentals of server management, ERP systems, and data center facility operations.
- Gained practical exposure to industrial IT support, troubleshooting, and maintenance processes.
- Strengthened teamwork, workplace communication, and problem-solving skills through direct exposure to a live industrial environment.
